Court Orders
Shakeup in Legislatures

WASHINGTON (AP) — A wholesale and historic revamping of state legislatures was decreed today by the Supreme Court.

The tribunal ruled that the seats in both houses of state legislatures "must be apportioned on a population basis."

This spells turmoil in most of the States because a majority of state legislatures are not so apportioned.

It also means vastly increased powers for city and suburban residents — especially suburbanites — as against their country cousins, who have been in control of legislatures across the country.

Court tests involving the representation balance of one or both houses of legislatures are under way in a number of states. In one of them, New Jersey, attorney David Friedland whose suit is pending before the State Supreme Court, commented today that the Supreme Court decision could produce "the most dramatic change in state government in a hundred years."

The court ruled initially in three appeals from Alabama, and then went on to:

Pronounce unconstitutional the present legislative apportionment system of New York State.

Declare that neither house of the Maryland Legislature "even after the 1962 legislation reapportioning the House of Delegates, is apportioned sufficiently on a population basis to be constitutionally sustainable."

Ruled that neither of the houses of the Virginia General Assembly is apportioned sufficiently on a population basis to be constitutional.

Upheld a lower court decision that both houses of the Delaware Legislature must be reapportioned along population lines.

The basic ruling, which will have incalculable effects on American politics, was read by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

"We mean that the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution requires that a state make an honest and good faith effort to construct districts in both houses of its legislature, as nearly of equal population as is practicable," Warren said.

The court struck down, in no uncertain terms, the doctrine that states may adopt the "little federal system." Rural interests, trying to preserve at least a veto power in state legislatures, had pointed to the federal

Radishes Like Music -- and What They Go Simply Wild Over Is the Beatles

By FRANK STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Radishes like music.

They also like some kinds of music better than others.

They grow better when they're listening to it.

They like Lily Pons' operatic coloratura quite well.

They don't care quite as much for symphonic works.

What they really like the most, though, is the Beatles.

Radishes simply go wild over the Beatles.

This discovery was made by Lynn Boshkov, 15-year-old daughter of a Columbia University professor, in a sophomore biology class experiment at suburban White Plains High School.

Her father, Stefan Boshkov, associate professor of mining engineering, was inclined to laugh off the experiment. But he didn't laugh about having to listen to Beatle music around the house day after day.

Beatles or not, though, he finally conceded his daughter had proved something with her experiment.

Here is what she did:

She planted four large trays with radish seeds last December and kept the trays near a sunny window inside the house.

They all grew in the same type soil and got the same amounts of water and sunshine.

However, when the plants had grown about three quarters of an inch above the soil, Lynn started playing music to three of the trays.

Each in turn would be placed on the living room floor in front of the phonograph loudspeaker.

Resignation
Story Denied
by Lodge

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge today termed "totally untrue" a Washington report that he was resigning within 30 days.

"There is no truth at all in that," Lodge said through a spokesman.

Lodge repeatedly has denied similar reports in the past.

On one recent occasion he said "I am not resigning but I don't plan to stay here the rest of my life, either."

The New York Times had reported that Lodge had asked to be relieved within 30 days for reasons of health. The White House in Washington said President Johnson had received no letter of resignation.

The Columbia Broadcasting System reported from Saigon that Lodge said the report he had submitted his resignation was "totally untrue."

The American Broadcasting Co. said Lodge, talking Sunday night in Saigon with ABC correspondent Charles P. Arnot, denied published reports that he was returning to the United States before the Republican National Convention. Lodge made no mention in the taped interview about resigning, an ABC spokesman said.

Lodge, 61, won New Hampshire's Republican presidential primary on write-in votes and now has 46 delegates who say they will vote for him on the first ballot at the Republican National Convention opening in San Francisco July 13.

Lodge's son, George Cabot Lodge, reported Sunday that he had informed the ambassador on Friday that the draft Lodge movement was supporting Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, who entered the GOP presidential race that day.

"My father sent me a telegram saying he was delighted

Anti-Faubus
Negro Block
Vote Urged

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' 85,000 Negroes were urged Saturday to band together to form a voting bloc against Gov. Orval E. Faubus' bid for a sixth term.

I. S. McClinton, president of the Arkansas Democratic (Negro) Voters Association, proposed the bloc at a state meeting of the organization in Little Rock. McClinton was re-elected president at the meeting.

McClinton said the state Democratic Party, under Faubus' leadership, had shown that it did not care for the Negro vote and this was indicated by the dropping of Negroes from the Democratic State Committee.

There were Negroes on the state committee prior to the school integration crisis in 1957, McClinton said, but since that time they have been dropped.

"If they do not want us," he said, "We will become independent voters and will be slow to commit ourselves to political parties who refuse to represent us through their leadership."

"If the Democrats are not careful of whom they nominate and show some signs of wanting our support," McClinton said, "then we should pick the best man without regard to party."

He encouraged Negro voters to try to qualify at least the Negroes who have never before registered to vote.

Six-State
Drive Begun
by Scranton

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton today opened a six-state quest for delegate support in his bid for the republican presidential nomination.

Pennsylvania's chief executive pointed his campaign westward into regions generally claimed by his No. 1 opponent, U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Scranton, after making a commencement address at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., was to go to Des Moines, Iowa, to confer with the Iowa delegation to the national convention.

Tuesday he will be at Topeka, Kan., and Minneapolis, Minn. Wednesday, he goes to St. Louis, Mo., and Denver, Colo., and on Saturday he is booked to keynote the Massachusetts GOP convention. Aides said there was a possibility other states would be included on the week's tour.

Scranton said he would speak every day this week, unless the work of the Pennsylvania Legislature prevents it.

He has admitted he started late in the campaign and has a long, uphill fight. But, he has said, "I am a good, hard, fast runner."

Scranton's aides contend the Pennsylvanian has more than 105 delegates, but they are banking on strong second ballot by the decision to support Scranton. He said, "Please tell Gov. Scranton how happy I am," the younger Lodge reported.

The Times dispatch, by Max Frankel under a Washington dateline, said:

"Lodge told President Johnson that the resignation was prompted by reasons of health, which he did not specify. The timing of the request, dated yesterday (Saturday), will assure his return home no later than one day before the start of the Republican convention....

"Mr. Lodge's move will free him of the restraints of the Foreign Service and enable him to participate in efforts to deny the Republican presidential nomination to Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona."

Asked about the New York Times story, White House press secretary George E. Reedy said Sunday night that Lodge's post "is a presidential appointment and the President has received no such communication."

Lodge, the 1960 Republican candidate for vice president, had denied repeatedly he planned to leave his Saigon post.

Despite his refusal to discuss politics, Lodge's supporters entered him in several presidential primaries. After winning New Hampshire's 14 votes, he added 30 from his native Massachusetts and one each from Alaska and Ohio.

Lodge was named to the Saigon post last June 27 by President John F. Kennedy. In 1962, Kennedy had captured Lodge's U.S. Senate seat and in 1960 Lodge was the GOP vice presidential candidate against the victorious Democratic team of Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court decided today that Tennessee may impose its use tax on property used by two private companies in operation of Oak Ridge plants of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Justice Byron R. White delivered the unanimous decision.

Tennessee sought to impose the 3 per cent use tax on Union Carbide Corp. and the H. K. Ferguson Co. which operate under contracts with the Atomic Energy Commission.

Tennessee courts upheld the levy on the ground the firms are independent contractors and, as such, are taxable on their private use of government-owned property.

Appealing to the Supreme Court, the Justice Department asked reversal of the state courts and said the United States, not the contractors, enjoyed the beneficial use of the property. The appeal said the case controlled liability of Carbide and Ferguson for about $10 million in accrued Tennessee use taxes. Under the contracts with Carbide and Ferguson, the United States pays any use taxes collected by the state from the contractors.

Grade Crash Kills 4 in One Family

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Morrilton man, his wife and two children were killed Sunday when their car struck a freight train at a crossing at Fair Oaks, 12 miles west of Wynne.

The victims were identified as Tommy N. Jackson, 25, of Morrilton; his wife Catherine, 26; a son, Tommy Jr., 5 and a daughter, Melinda, 3.

State Trooper Joe Overstreet said the car skidded into the second unit of the multi-unit Cotton Belt at a crossing on U.S. 64.

Their deaths brought to seven the number of persons who have been killed at the crossing since June 2.

A total of 12 Arkansans died accidentally in Arkansas during the weekend beginning Friday at noon and ending Sunday at midnight. All but one of those deaths came Sunday.

Three members of one family drowned in the Spring River near Black Rock when the boat in which they were riding capsized. Five other persons in the boat swam to safety.

The dead were Ed O'Connor, 30, of Sedgwick in Lawrence County; his wife, Margaret, 39, and a daughter Jill, 9.

Three other O'Connor children aged 11, 6, and 3 and a couple with the O'Connors were life preservers.

Dwight Timbs, Jr., 2½, of Trumann, was killed when he was thrown from his father's car after it sideswiped another car on Arkansas 63 near Trumann.

Tex Hodges, 20, of Marianna, drowned Sunday in the Saline River, 15 miles south of Rison.

Eddie Le Chandler, 11, of Tyrone, was killed when the car he was driving left the road and overturned on a country road, six miles south of Marked Tree.

Thomas Boyce, 26, of North Little Rock, drowned early Saturday when he fell into the Arkansas River in Conway County about 10 miles southwest of Morrilton.

Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins said dragging operations would continue as long as necessary. The body had not

What to Do About L.R. Pools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock officials still face the problem of whether to sell, close or integrate War Memorial swimming pool.

The pool, for whites only, is one of two operated by the city. The other pool is for Negroes only.

Both pools remained open but City Manager Acil Douthitt said Thursday any reasonable offer to buy them would be considered.

Saturday, the Arkansas Council of Churches condemned the proposal and said sale of the pools would not stand up in the courts, "because of the intent to maintain segregation."

Sam J. Allen of Little Rock, executive secretary of the council, said the city would be doing a grave injustice to taxpayers and property owners who cannot afford "a country club for swimming, and who are no longer concerned about the presence of Negroes in public places."

Officials of the NAACP announced Friday that more integration attempts would be made at the pool today, but with no intention of causing a disturbance.

Washington, Pa., Invites Residents of Hempstead County Town to Visit It

Residents of Washington, Ark., who will be arriving to the New York World's Fair this summer, have been invited to visit their sister city in the State of Pennsylvania.

Bartley P. Osborne, mayor of Washington, Pa., has issued an official proclamation which extends an open invitation to residents of this area.

The mayor's proclamation stated that the public officials and citizens of Washington, Pa., are eager to meet and play host to residents of their namesake in Arkansas.

Washington, Pa., deep in historic tradition, is located in the southwestern part of the state, just 28 miles from Pittsburgh, and an easy day's drive to the fair—396 miles.

The city is famous as the scene of the Whisky Rebellion in 1791. The Bradford House, still standing, marks the scene of the leader's hairbreadth escape from federal troops.

Washington is the home of Washington and Jefferson College, founded in 1781, the oldest institution of higher learning west of the Allegheny Mountains.

On the Southern edge of the city is the oldest crematorium in America, and in the downtown area is one of the state's famed historical museums.

The Meadows, scene of exciting harness racing, is located on the outskirts of Washington.

Nearby are picturesque covered bridge and miles of scenic country roads. On the Monongahela River is a boating paradise, where any size pleasure craft can be rented or chartered.

Washington has ample hotel and motel accommodations for visitors. The city also boasts some of the finest restaurants in Pennsylvania.

Citizens of Washington, Arkansas, who will be stopping in Washington, Pa., are asked to inform the city officials so that can be properly greeted. Write Washington-Greene TPA, 1 South College Street, Washington, Pa.

support at the San Francisco convention to put Scranton into the top spot.

Goldwater presently holds a long lead in delegate strength, with 619 votes, according to the latest Associated Press poll. This is only 36 short of the number needed for nomination.

The Associated Press poll gives Scranton 113, compared to 127 for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, the No. 2 man in the delegate race.

Scranton, who announced his candidacy last Friday at the Maryland GOP convention in Baltimore, said, "The reaction has been fantastic." Appearing on the American Broadcasting Co. television program, "Issues and Answers," the governor said Sunday he has been buoyed by the response of Republicans throughout the nation.

He said he feels most of the delegates for Goldwater "are not completely committed to him" and he feels that through campaign speeches and personal contacts with delegates to the national convention he can "pull back some delegates."

Many others are "changing their minds now that they have a choice," he added.

"I wouldn't be in it if I didn't think I could win," Scranton said.

Scranton's television appearance capped a hectic weekend.

what the story's first paragraph said while the Democrat headline said the loss of graduates was decreasing.

There are more college graduates in the state than ever before, Faubus said and the state's population is increasing.

Faubus said former president Harry Truman and former Gov. Jefferson Davis won their elections despite strong newspaper opposition.

"I guess we don't have to worry what these fellows write," he said. "Newspaper writers have no influence."

Faubus said he probably would have to support left-leaning programs before he could get the support of the newspapers.

Faubus criticized what he termed racial moderates, commenting on a news story Sunday in which the Rev. Sam J. Allen, executive secretary of the Arkansas Council of Churches, criticized a proposed sale of Little Rock public swimming pools because they could be integrated.

"I've got a suggestion for Mr. Allen and others like him," Faubus said. "Go on down to the Negro swimming pool and go in with them. If you want to swim with Negroes, we're not going to stop you."

"I never saw so many prejudiced people," Faubus continued. "They are the one reason why I don't get praise for some of the things I have done."

Faubus mentioned the possibility that he might be defeated by Winthrop Rockefeller in a general election. "They've got a good chance to beat me now if they want to," he said. "They may beat me, but they'll never control me."

A crowd estimated at 450 persons attended the ceremony for the new structures, which cost $65,000 each.

Viet Nam 'Scorched Earth' Plan

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—"We will keep that area scorched. As soon as they build up again we will burn it down."

The speaker was a senior officer of the American special forces, studying reports of a renewed Communist Viet Cong buildup in a supply area near the Cambodian border. The region was left smoldering and barren in a "scorched earth" operation last week.

Both American and Vietnamese special forces men participated in the sweep along the Vaio Oriental River that winds down into the heart of the Mekong River delta from Cambodia. It is a key Viet Cong supply route.

Reports received in Saigon show that the Viet Cong are rebuilding thatched homes and storehouses razed last week. Tons of rice burned and then tossed into the river is drying along a river bank as the Viet Cong attempt to salvage some of it.

Sampan traffic has resumed along the river but the riverboats flee into jungle cover when planes come low.

The Saigon government is making it clear it will strike again into the river region in the near future. The special forces intend to use the same propaganda devices that persuaded 600 peasant families — minus husbands — to accept government offers of relocation. Every wife interviewed said her husband was with the Viet Cong.

A reported 60 per cent of the population of the river region in western Tay Ninh Province left on American helicopters for resettlement. They have moved into strategic hamlets and are being fed by the U.S. aid mission.

Special forces sources report that pictures of contented settlers are being pasted on propaganda pamphlets dropped into the region in an attempt to persuade the husbands to join them.

Other leaflets offer high prices for Viet Cong weapons. These have had results. Two peasants carrying old rifles arrived in Saigon from the Tay Ninh area and gave themselves up to the first policeman they saw.

Taken to headquarters, they admitted they were Viet Cong, waved pamphlets and immediately demanded 1,000 piasters—about $13—each for their cently to see Mr. and Mrs. G.B. Hughes and enjoyed an outing at Lake Greeson. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Smith and Virginia of Banning, Calif., visited the Hughes last week, and Mr. and Mrs. George McMorran and sons arrived Sunday from their home in Hemet, Calif. A Hughes family reunion is planned for Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Comer Boyett, Jr. and Churck were here this weekend to get daughter, Sarah, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Comer Boyett, while the rest of the family had a vacation on the Gulf.

En route home to McGehee this weekend Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bowman visited Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Foster.

Ward Family Thanks

Editor The Star: For some time we have been wanting to write and thank you so very much for putting the pictures of our chickens in the paper—and also for the pictures you sent us. Words can not express how much we appreciate them; and I look forward to The Star every day.

When I was a girl my father took the paper and we children would fight over it every day. I want to say Thank You again.

Thanks From Legion

Editor The Star: It has been a pleasure and inspiration to us, the American Legion Auxiliary, Leslie Huddleston Unit 12, to have had in our possession the 1962-63 plaque award for public achievement for the past two consecutive years.

We are most grateful to the Hope Star staff for the splendid co-operation in giving the time and space to tell the readers of your paper about some of the things which members of the American Legion Auxiliary try to do in carrying out its program in the community, state, and nation.

To date over 750 inches of newspaper space has been recorded in our publicity report. This is the most the Hope unit has ever been fortunate enough to record in its history.

Again may we say thanks for a job well done. Without your co-operation in giving this publicity the achievement award could not have been possible; and I am aware of the fact that if the Auxiliary had to pay for this much space, it would run into hundreds of dollars.

Charles Luna, president of the brotherhood, said the strike deals with local contract changes.

In Washington, U.S. District Court Judge Alexander Holtzoff said late Sunday night he had issued a 10 day temporary restraining order against the brotherhood enjoining a strike against a number of railroads. The judge set a hearing in the case for June 22.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Switchmen and brakemen struck the Missouri Pacific Railroad and other lines at 6 a. m. today, disrupting rail traffic in Arkansas and other states.

Carl T. Watts, head of Lodge 49 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, could not be reached immediately for comment.

Charles Luna, national president of the BRT, said in Cleveland, Ohio, the strike dealt with local contract changes.

Pickets appeared in at least four Arkansas cities — Little Rock, North Little Rock, Texarkana and McGehee.

The Texas & Pacific a MoPac subsidiary, was also picketed at Texarkana. The strike was also expected to affect operations of the M-K-T (Kathy, the Santa Fe, Frisco and Rock Island lines).

J. G. Sheppard, Southern district general manager for MoPac, said here rail traffic was being halted throughout the system.

"The trains that are still running are just going to terminals," he said. "No trains are leaving on their usual runs."

Needed First Aid

Trenton, Mo. — "We need first aid," said a spokesman for a group of young men who approached the nurse's station at the North Central Missouri Fair.

Mrs. Harold Hamilton, nurse on duty, noting most of the group shielding one member, asked if she could help.

"Yes," replied the spokesman handing her a badly torn pair of trousers. "Can you patch these so our friend here can get home. We came over the fence but he didn't quite make it."

Khrushchev will spend six days in each country, ending his tour in Sweden July 4.

Various groups in each country have indicated degrees of opposition to the visit. A Swedish organization plans to hold public protest meetings. Its members include many exiles from the formerly independent Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, annexed by the Soviet Union after World War II.

Prospects for the Swedish visit also have been clouded by the conviction last week of Swedish air force Col. Stig Winerstrom for spying for the Soviet Union. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Three years ago bitter public opposition forced Khrushchev to cancel a trip to Scandinavia.

system in operation in the U.S. Congress.

Under this plan, adopted as a result of the "great compromise" in the constitutional convention of the Founding Fathers, the House of Representatives is based on population, but every state, no matter how sparsely populated, has two senators.

But this argument was rejected by the Supreme Court today.

In calling for apportionment of both houses of state legislatures on the basis of population, Warren declared that the federal analogy is "inapposite and irrelevant to state legislative districting schemes."

"Attempted reliance on the federal analogy" by supporters of legislative apportionment in today's cases said Warren "appears often to be little more than an after-the-fact rationalization offered in defense of maladjusted state apportionment arrangements."

"DEAR ABBY"

A "LEADING" QUESTION!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am 12 years old and I live in Lead, South Dakota. I think our State is very unfairly treated. It is never advertised like New York or California, or Texas. I love my State and we have just as many exciting things as other States. And Lead is a nice city, too, but you never hear anything about it. Can you put this in your column and give us a boost?

LESLIE DORNBUH, Lead, S. D.

Dear Leslie: The pioneers fought the Indians, grasshoppers and dust to make South Dakota one of the richest farming States in the nation. And there's gold in them there hills too! Furthermore, our Rushmore Memorial Park is one of the best known State parks in the country. Your pheasant hunting is second to none. South Dakota is growing in resources and culture. So ask your governor if he has Lead in his plans.

J. S.
Dear J.S.: A "dam" was indeed a former copper coin used in India. But it has been so many years since anyone has had a dam to give that the expression today is more profane than proper.

Dear Abby: My problem is an adorable boy. Oh, he's not that cute, but heck, neither am I. He's 19 and I am 13. The only ones who know how I feel about him are my best two girl friends. They say I should give up and forget him because he is too old for me, but I have tried and I can't. I have felt this way about him since I was nine and a half. I can't see where six years is such a big difference. My mother is 33 and my father is 39. Do you think there is any hope?

Lynn wound up the experiment a few days ago when the radishes had reached maturity. She made precise measurements as to leaf and root growth, as well as the size of the eatable part of the radish.

She calculated the different rates of growth in percentages, using the radishes which had not been entertained as a basis of 100 per cent. The others came out in this fashion:

Weight of foliage above ground: Radishes which listened to The Beatles, 247 per cent; radishes in the Lily Pons audience, 224 per cent; radishes treated to the "New World Symphony," 168 per cent.

Weight of radish and root: Beatles-lovers, 322 per cent; the Pons group, 128 per cent; the Dvorak divison, 100 per cent—they didn't dig Dvorak below ground.

Number of leaves above ground: Beatles, 142.5 per cent; Pons, 118 per cent; Dvorak, 105 per cent.

Said Professor Boshkov: "I was betting on Lily Pons and hoping that the Beatles radishes would turn out with scrawny leaves and crooked roots."

Said Lynn: "I bet on the Beatles. I was with them all the way."

Said Lynn's mother: "I spent a lot of time cleaning mud splatters off the wall and the living room rug."

Farrell Gets No. 10 Beating the Cards

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston's Dick Farrell pitched with a gun at his back. The gun's name is Nellie Fox.

Farrell, who figures the scrappy Fox is the latest weapon in his well-stocked pitching arsenal, became the first 10-game winner in the major leagues Sunday night as he scattered eight hits in a 4-1 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

A converted reliever acquired from the Los Angeles Dodgers for the premier $125,000 price tag in the National League expansion draft, Farrell is in his third and most productive season as a starter. And that's where Fox, acquired from the Chicago White Sox, enters the picture.

"He keeps me bearing down," said the 30-year-old right-hander. "He is always on my back."

Farrell had a 10-20 record for the Colts in 1962 and was 14-13 last year. But with the helpful intimidation of the little second baseman he has reached the first plateau en route to a 20-victory season with the best record in the majors.

Farrell's latest triumph was his seventh in a row and brought his record to an eye-opening 10-1. It also extended the Cardinals' skid. St. Louis now has lost four straight and 18 of its last 42 while falling into eighth place, 6½ games behind the Dodgers.

John Briggs, starting his first major league game because of a leg injury to Wes Covington, produced the fireworks for the Phillies in the opener. Briggs singled twice, slammed a double, drove in two runs and scored twice, riding home on Richie Allen's 13th homer in the fourth.

John Callison took over against the Mets in the nightcap, driving in three runs with a homer and double. Art Mahaffey got the nightcap victory with Ed Roebuck's relief help after Ray Culp posted his first victory since April 26 in the opener.

Cepeda and Hart, who drove in three runs, hit consecutive homers against Reds Starter Jim O'Toole, 5-3 in his third inning. Willie Mays also figured heavily in the attack with a single, double, triple and three runs scored. Ron Herbel, 4-2, got the victory with an eight-hitter.

Rangers on Three-Game Win Streak

Pacific Coast League By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Dallas Rangers, who have brought up the rear in the Pacific Coast League Eastern Division race for a month and a half, are riding high on a three-game winning string, their first of the season.

The Rangers recorded their 15th and 16th wins Sunday by beating Tacoma 3-2 and 5-2 in a doubleheader. They began the string by beating Tacoma Saturday 5-0 in the first game of a series.

Ken Harrelson batted two home runs to produce all the Rangers' runs in the first game Sunday. Tacoma's Hal Lanier opened the scoring with a bases-empty homer in the first, but Harrelson matched it in the second and added his two-run shot in the fourth.

In the second game, Chet Boak homered for Dallas with one aboard in the fourth but the Giants tied it in the fifth. Again Harrelson was the hero. He clouted his third homer of the day with two out and two on base in the sixth for the winning runs.

Elsewhere, Portland beat Seattle 5-3 in the first of two and lost the second 3-0. Indianapolis stopped Arkansas 3-2, Hawaii whipped Denver 10-6, Salt Lake City split a doubleheader with San Diego, winning the first 3-2 and losing the second 10-4, and Spokane downed Oklahoma City 6-2.

Portland made it four in a row against Seattle in the first game. Singles by Duke Sims, Tommie Agee and Tony Attanasio loaded the bases in the second, and another single by Al Luplow drove in two runs.

Three singles and a walk produced three more in the next inning and put the game out of reach.

Seattle broke the losing streak in the second game with a three-run sixth inning. With one on, Bob Guindon hit the first five runs in the first inning of the second game for what proved to be a winning margin.

Spokane grabbed a 2-1 lead in a series with Oklahoma City with their 6-2 win over the visitors. The 89ers scored first, in the second inning with a homer by Jim Weekly, but the Indians tallied two in the bottom of the third but his throw went into the dirt, Indianapolis had snapped a seven-game Arkansas winning streak Saturday with a 12-3 victory.

Hawaii scored four unearned runs in the 10th for its triumph at Denver.

Solo home runs by Glen Beckert, John Bocabella and Lou Holdener gave Salt Lake the decision in the first game with San Diego. The Padres scored five runs in the first inning of the second game for what proved to be a winning margin.

Yank Sweep Knocks Chi Out of 1st

By MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

"We have been going good, and we are going to get better," said Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox shortly before his American League leaders started a five-game series with the New York Yankees.

The White Sox now are in second place.

The Yankees took care of that, using just 50 hours for a sweep of the series. They completed the annihilation Sunday, taking a doubleheader 8-3 and 4-3 in 10 innings.

The double loss coupled with Baltimore's two victories over Boston put the Orioles on top, one game and 10 percentage points ahead of the White Sox, who have dropped six straight.

The third-place Yankees moved four percentage points behind Chicago, holding a seven-game winning streak, longest in the majors this season.

The rampaging Yankees rendered the White Sox attack so ineffective it might take Lopez the rest of the year to find it. Chicago managed only 28 hits in the series and scored only 10 runs.

The White Sox came close to averting the sweep but couldn't hold off New York in the ninth inning of Sunday's nightcap. Trailing 3-1, the Yankees scored twice with the aid of shortstop Ron Hanse's error, then won it in the 10th on Joe Pepitone's run-scoring single.

Another highlight of the five-doubleheader day was the 30 home runs that were hit in the league. That tied the major league record set June 10, 1962.

Minnesota's power-laden Twins led the onslaught in their 6-5 and 9-2 victories over Washington. The Orioles clobbered the Red Sox 10-1 and 8-1, Kansas City edged Cleveland 6-5 in 10 innings and 3-2 and Detroit squeezed by Los Angeles 6-5 and Minnesota also clouted four homers in the nightcap, including Allison's 15th. The Twins' Johnny Goryl was thrown out of the game in the sixth after charging and punching pitcher Jim Duckworth who hit him with a pitch. Duckworth was fined $50.

Home runs decided both of the games between the Athletics and the Indians. Jim Gentile, who previously knocked in three runs, connected in the 10th inning of the opener while Dick Green hammered a two-run homer in the seventh for the second-game triumph.

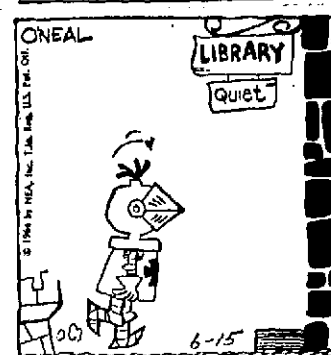

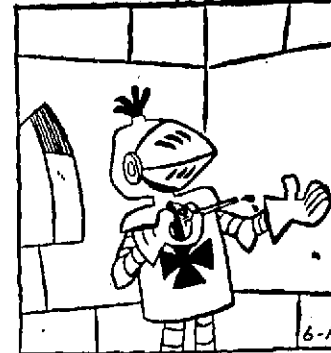

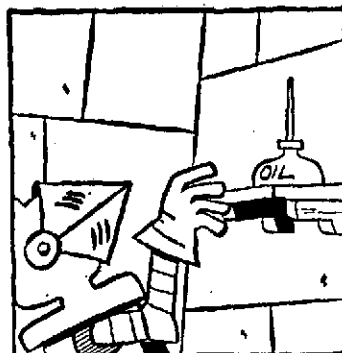

John Romano's homer had given the Indians a brief 2-1 lead in the sixth.

The Tigers won the second game on Don Demeter's two-run double in the four-run seventh. The blow came off reliever Bob Lee, who also was the victim of Dick McAuliffe's eighth-inning homer which won the opener.

Jimmy Piersall, Bobby Knopf and Joe Adcock homered for the Angels in the first game.

In the National League, Philadelphia beat New York 9-5 and 4-2, Milwaukee whipped Los Angeles 5-1 and 5-1. San Francisco trounced Cincinnati 8-2, Houston downed St. Louis 4-1 and Chicago defeated Pittsburgh 5-2. Rain washed out the second game of their doubleheader.

Juan Pizarro suffered his third loss in 10 decisions in the opener. Howard and Phil Linz rocked him for two-run homers in the second. Linz added a solo homer in the eighth.

Baltimore moved into first place behind the five-hit pitching of Chuck Estrada and Dick Hall in the nightcap. Estrada pitched the first five innings, enough for his first victory since May 21, 1963. Jerry Adair drove in two runs for the Orioles, giving him five for the day.

Brooks, Robinson and Luis Aparicio each lashed four hits in the opener. Robinson hit a home run, a triple and two singles while Aparicio collected a triple and three singles and stole three bases.

The Twins' Harmon Killebrew pounded three homers, giving him 20 for the season. He hit two in the first game while Bob Allison and Zoilo Versalles added one each. Fred Valenzuela homered with two aboard for the Senators.

Minnesota also clouted four homers in the nightcap, including Allison's 15th. The Twins' Johnny Goryl was thrown out of the game in the sixth after charging and punching pitcher Jim Duckworth who hit him with a pitch. Duckworth was fined $50.

Amateur Tourney at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The annual Arkansas State Men's Amateur Golf Association Tournament opens here Thursday, without the defending champion in the field of contestants.

M. C. Methvin of Little Rock, winner of the event last year, has turned professional.

The annual Arkansas Open tournament will be held in conjunction with the state event, with the title being decided after second round play Friday.

Mike Mitchell of Texarkana will defend the open title.

On top for the first day of the four-day state meet are the first round of open play, senior championship and first flight qualifying and medal play.

Finals in the state meet are set Sunday afternoon.

Hansen Hits Vault Mark 17 Feet 2

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Fred Hansen, the slim, record-cracking vaulter from Texas, was almost eliminated at the now common 16-foot mark at pre-Olympics tryouts.

"I just wasn't warmed up enough for the early jumps and wasn't rocking back (on the fiber glass pole) like I should," said Hansen.

He went on to clear 17 feet, 2 inches, an unofficial world record, at the invitational meet here Saturday night. But previously he missed the 16-foot qualifying mark twice, family clearing it on his final try after seven others had made it.

"I felt that I could break the record again, once I got going," the 6-foot, 168-pound Texan said later. "I felt good, the conditions were good and the competition was good."

Hansen, 23, a pre-dental student at Rice University, soared 17-1 last week at Houston to better John Pennel's pending world mark of 17.

Pennel of Miami, Fla., the only other vaulter ever to clear 17 feet, was Hansen's fierce competitor Saturday night.

The bar was raised to 17-2 by

Dancer Is Favorite at Woodbine

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Northern Dancer, winner of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness and then third in the Belmont Stakes as he failed to wrap up the Triple Crown, returns to action Saturday as the short-priced favorite in the $50,000-added Queen's Plate at Woodbine.

The Canadian-bred son of Nearctic-Natalma from E.P. Taylor's Windfields Farm of Toronto will be performing before the home folks for the first time since he started a successful invasion of the United States late in 1963.

The 1 1/4 miles of the Queen's Plate figures to be more to the liking of the Dancer than the 1 1/4 miles of the Belmont Stakes. He won the 1 1/4 miles of the Kentucky Derby by a neck and the 1 3/8 miles of the Preakness by 2 1/4 lengths.

Opponents for Northern Dancer are expected to come from two divisions of the 1 1/4 miles of the $7,500 Plate Trial today.

Bill Hartack again will be astride Northern Dancer in the Queen's Plate.

Also scheduled Saturday are the $100,000-added Illinois Handicap over one mile at Arlington Park, the 1 1/4 miles of the $50,000-added Inglewood Handicap at Hollywood Park, the $35,000-added Leonard Richards for 3-year-olds over 1 1/4 miles at Delaware Park and the $25,000-added Bowling Green Handicap, a grass course race at 1 1/4 miles.

mutual consent of Hansen and Pennel after two others, Mel Hein Jr. and Ron Meyers, were eliminated at 16 - 8 1/2. They cleared 16-5.

Pennel, formerly of Northwest Louisiana State, narrowly evaded serious injury when he failed in his second try at 17-2. He missed the foam rubber cushion and suffered a bruised lung, according to hospital officials. He was observed through the night and released from the hospital Sunday.

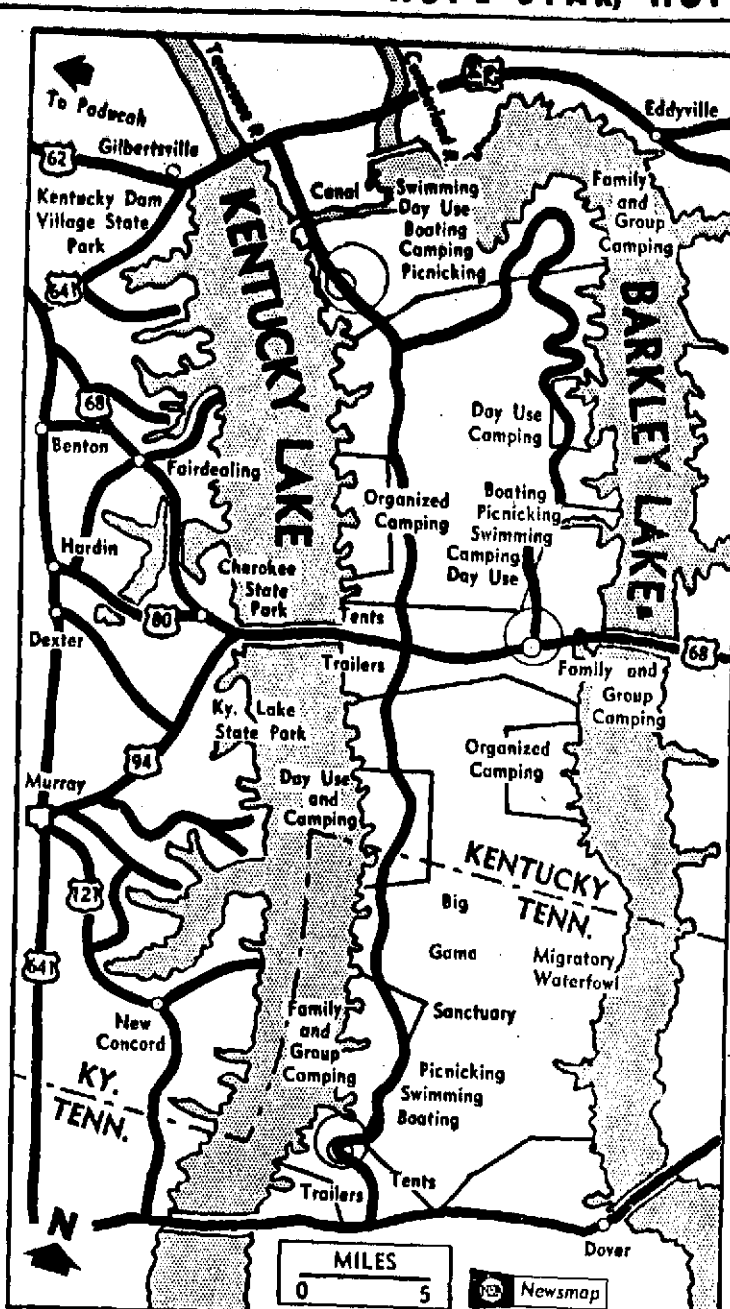

The meet also turned in the world's quickest half-mile this year when veteran Jerry Siebert was clocked in 1:47.5. The world mark is 1:45.1, set by Peter Snell of New Zealand in 1962.

Within a one-day drive for 70 million Americans, a great new tract for enthusiasts of the outdoors life is taking shape in the southwestern corner of Kentucky and northern Tennessee. It is known as the Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area. A five-year development program already has been started by the Tennessee Valley Authority. Limited accommodations are available this year. The area embraces 170,000 acres of virtually virgin territory—a peninsula 38 miles long and eight miles wide. It lies between 185-mile-long Kentucky Lake and the now-almost-completed 118-mile-long Barkley Lake (see Newsmap, left). At the northern end of the tract a canal will connect both lakes for the benefit of

Arkansas Reservists on Flying Visit Home After Tour in New York Area

It's "Goodbye, Broadway Hello Home" for this group of Army Reservists from the 7510th ARTU USAR Transportation Army Terminal Station Complement, El Dorado, Arkansas! They are boarding the United States Overseas Airways plane for a quick flight to Shreveport, Louisiana, and a brief jaunt by chartered bus to their home station.

The 7510th has spent two weeks of summer training at the Brooklyn Army Terminal, Brooklyn, New York. There they have joined civilian and Army personnel preparing cargo for shipment to overseas points, and receiving supplies from many foreign lands.

Forty-two officers and forty-three enlisted men showed themselves ready to assume full-time duties upon mobilization, under the command of Lt. Col. Hollis G. Bray, Hampton, Arkansas.

After a full work day, members of the 7510th enjoyed visits to the New York World's Fair, and to many of the Broadway hit shows. For many of them, this was made possible by the capable staff of the United Service Organization, on Broadway and 43rd Streets, New York City.

Their first visit to New York City proved interesting, entertaining, and informative, to all 7510th members, and will be long-remembered by them.

Hayes and Carr Duel Is 'Off'

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP)—The running battle between Arizona State University's Henry Carr and Bob Hayes of Florida A&M is going to come to a temporary halt.

For more than a year Hayes and Carr have carried on a friendly battle to determine who is the nation's fastest human, but Hayes should have it all this week in the NCAA 220-yard dash.

Carr won't be in Eugene, Ore., for the meet. The A-State sprinter, world record holder for the 220, is out of action with a pulled right leg muscle.

The 6-foot-3 Detroit, Mich., speedster suffered the injury in a 100-yard dash in the San Diego Invitational Saturday night.

A-State track coach Senon Castillo said Sunday he would not enter Carr, who has bettered his own world mark of 20.3 in the 220 with a 20.2 effort this season, even if the leg responds to treatment.

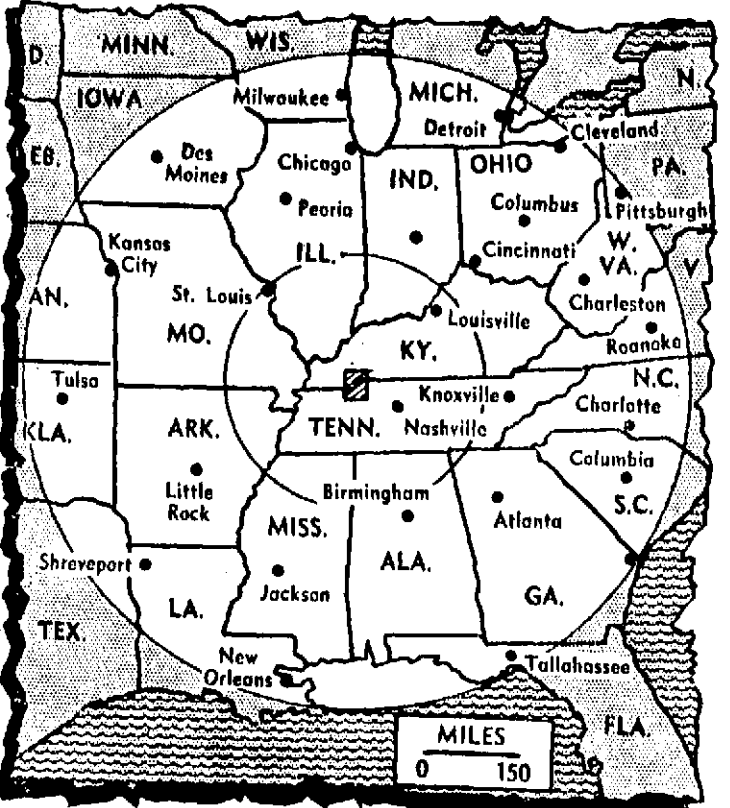

After a full work day, members of the 7510th enjoyed visits to the New York World's Fair, and to many of the Broadway hit shows. For many of them, this was made possible by the capable staff of the United Service Organization, on Broadway and 43rd Streets, New York City.

far-ranging boatmen and fishermen. Scattered along the more than 300 miles of shoreline of both lakes will be areas for water sports, fishing, hunting, family, group and primitive camping sites; tent and trailer parks and picnic groves. Hotels and restaurants are barred from the tract but will fringe the area. For nature lovers the strip abounds in all forms of wildlife and migratory waterfowl in a large acreage game refuge. WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., says the Soviet Union has stopped withdrawing its troops from Cuba in what may be an effort to "guard the missile sites or to protect the Cuban regime from its own enemies."

Keating, on a program recorded for radio and television in New York estimated Sunday that between 4,000 and 7,000 Soviet troops remain in Cuba.

Clark Wins Grand Prix of Belgium

FRANCORCHAMPS, Belgium (AP)—It's becoming almost impossible for Jimmy Clark to lose the Grand Prix of Belgium auto race.

The world driving champion won the race for the third straight year Sunday after American Dan Gurney and British Graham Hill, who had been well ahead of Clark all the way, ran out of gas—literally—with the finish line almost within sight.

Clark, in a Lotus-Climax, was in third place with two laps to go in the 280.362 mile classic when Gurney, out of Cosworth-Mesa, driving a Climax-powered Brabham, unexpectedly pulled over to the pit.

This enabled Hill to barrel into the lead in his BRM, but seconds later, Hill also was forced to stop and Clark took over.

Gurney and Hill said after the race that they had not stopped because of any mechanical trouble but their machines had run out of gas. Gurney tried to refuel but there was no gas available at the pit.

Clark's time for the race was 2:06:40.5 for an average speed of 132.72 mph.

Sunday, the bureau noted that the one-billionth visitor to the national parks was recorded in Aug. 28, 1962—58 years after they were established. But the second billionth visitor is expected in 1973.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson attended the National City Christian Church Sunday and, like most of his fellow worshippers, used a church-provided paper fan to cool himself.

Johnson was accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and two members of his Cabinet—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges and Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall and their wives.

Nancy Richey Star of U.S. Net Victory

LONDON (AP)—Nancy Richey, 21-year-old tennis star from Dallas, Tex., was hailed today as the star of America's victorious Wightman Cup team and a serious contender for the Wimbledon title.

The American girls won the cup for the fourth straight year with a 5-2 margin over Britain at Wimbledon.

The meet ended Sunday after rain had postponed the final matches originally scheduled Saturday.

Miss Richey scored the only straight sets victory in defeating Mrs. Ann Jones, the British No. 1 on Saturday, 7-5, 11-9 in the match that decided the series.

Miss Richey was the most talked about player. Her play astonished the critics.

The result of the Wightman Cup left the record of the event looking more one-sided than ever—30 wins to the Americans and six to the British.

So. Cal. Is the Pick for NCAA Track

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Southern California, the early pick to cop team honors at next weekend's NCAA track meet at Eugene, looms even larger after winning the team title at last weekend's U.S. Track and Field Federation meet at nearby Corvallis.

But the June 18-20 meet does not shape up as a USC runaway. At least eight other schools are figured to make strong bids for the title Southern California has won 22 items in 42 years.

Southern Cal is strong in field events. Its only first place last weekend was a high jump victory by Lew Hoyt, who went 6-10 for a new meet record.

The eight teams given a chance to oust the defending champion trojans are Oregon, California, Villanova, San Jose, Oregon State, Arizona State, Fresno State and Grambling.

Errors by Travelers Lose Game

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—The Indianapolis Indians took advantage of two Arkansas Traveler errors in the ninth inning to break a 2-2 tie and defeat the Travelers 3-2 in Pacific Coast League baseball here Sunday.

Alex Johnson fumbled a single by Chico Fernandez, allowing Fernandez to advance to second. Fernandez went to third when Gary Johnson bounced out to second and scored when second baseman Norm Gigon threw into the dirt attempting to get Fernandez at third.

Loser Billy Smith went the distance for the Traveler and took the loss.

War Games Cost Put at 54 Million

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Recent Army-Air Force war games in the Far West cost about $54 million and were the most costly since World War II, it was learned today.

The Associated Press was told this was the price tag on Desert Strike, a two-week mock war in which some 100,000 Army troops and Air Force units duelled over areas of California, Arizona and Nevada last month.

The Defense Department said it originally had been calculated the exercise would cost $60.1 million, but that various economies had sliced about $6 million from that estimate.

By comparison, "Exercise Big Lift" last fall cost $20 million. In this operation, the 16,000 men of an armored division were flown 5,600 miles from Texas to Germany and returned after maneuvers near the Iron Curtain.

The Pentagon said "the major contributing factor to the cost of joint exercise Desert Strike was the commercial transportation of the armored units and their heavy equipment to and from the exercise area."

Two armored divisions — the 1st and 2nd — were moved by train from Ft. Hood, Tex., to the three-state battleground. Armored divisions have about 3,750 vehicles, including 364 tanks and 660 personnel carriers.

Also involved in Desert Strike were an armored brigade of the California National Guard and a tank battalion from Ft. Campbell, Ky. In Air Force planes, the 5th Mechanized Infantry Division came from Colorado and various smaller Army and Air Force units were drawn from as far away as the East Coast.

The cost of moving Army forces by commercial means, where this was done, was estimated at $27.9 million.

Asked why Desert Strike was considered worth the outlay of funds, the Pentagon cited these reasons, among others:

"It is the first time since World War II that we have been able to get two armored divisions into an exercise maneuver area in the United States where they could operate as freely as required for proper armor field training."

"The exercise also gave us a chance to simulate realistically the employment of tactical nuclear weapons. This let us better explore tactical use of nuclear weapons in a limited war situation."

"Joint exercise Desert Strike was not only a thorough test of men and equipment, but also an ideal opportunity to test and further improve several operational concepts for joint air-ground operations we have been developing and improving over the past several years."

Debate 1st Flag for Canada

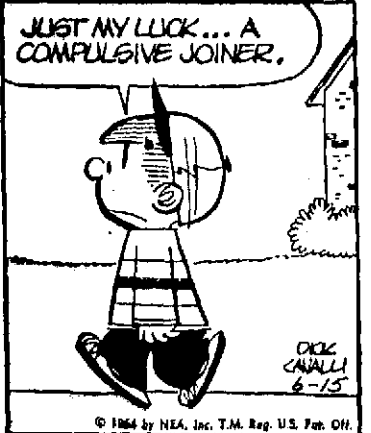

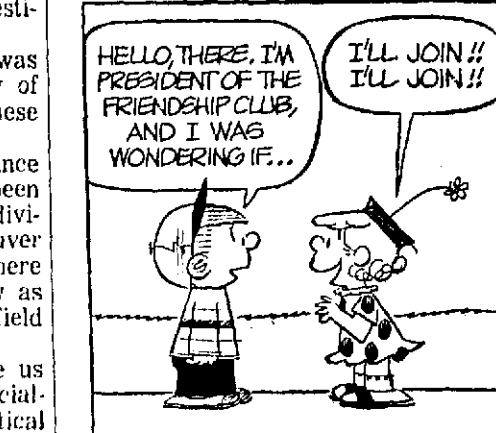

OTTAWA (AP)—The Canadian House of Commons opens debate today on Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's proposal to give Canada its first official flag. Preliminary polls indicate Pearson can count on a slim majority for approval.

Pearson has staked his minority Liberal government on the emotion-charged issue. He has warned that if he is defeated, he may resign and force another national election.

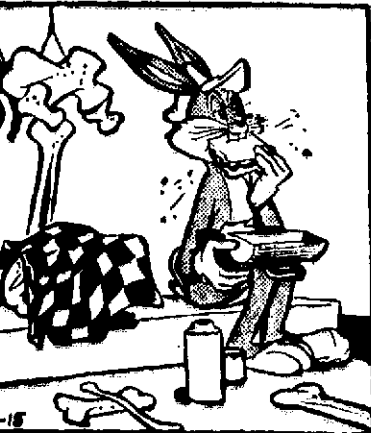

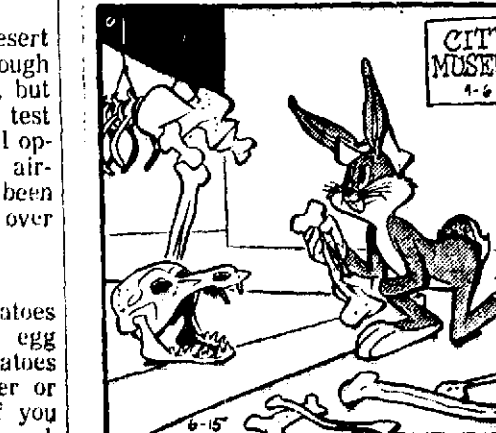

The hotly debated "Pearson pennant," which the prime minister selected from more than 3,000 designs, is white with three red maple leaves in the center joined to a single stem. Narrow blue vertical bars at each end symbolize Canada's motto, "From Sea to Sea."

The resolution before Parliament would establish this as Canada's national flag and retain the British Union Jack as a symbol of Canada's allegiance to the Commonwealth.

Beaten as They Defend Their Wives

NEW YORK (AP)—Two men, who knocked down two Negroes for allegedly molesting their wives as they walked along brightly lighted Broadway Sunday night, were mobbed and beaten by eight Negroes minutes later. Dozens of strollers watched.

As the two men's wives screamed for help, one bystander did call police.

The victims were Michael Massa, 30, and his wife, Ann, 27, and Edward Costa, 38, and his wife, Margaret, 30, all of Brooklyn.

By the time police came, the attackers had fled. The Costas and Massa were treated at a hospital for face and body cuts. Costa was detained for X-rays.

I was up early the next morning feeling like a new man. I ordered breakfast from room service and took a fast shower while it was being delivered. After breakfast I shaved and got dressed. Then I went downstairs and the doorman called a cab for me.

Sure enough, there was that same sedan falling into line. I smiled to myself. I wondered how Jerry Dell liked getting up so early.

The first stop was at the Martinson Laundry. I patiently went from person to person until I finally ended up with the manager. His name was Pearson. I showed him my identification and told him who I was working for. He looked unhappy.

"This is not the company we're insured with and I'm positive that everything about our insurance is in order."

"Who does carry your insurance?" I asked.

"Well, the insurance on our employees is with Interstate Workers and the insurance on our plant and equipment is with Monig Mutual, but we're happy with both companies and have no desire to change."

"I'm not selling insurance," I told him. "This is a matter of co-operation between insurance companies. I'd like some information from your records about your contract with the Peraton Hotel."

His manner changed. "I'm afraid that's quite impossible. We can't open our records to just anyone who comes in off the street. As far as I know, you might be sent here by one of our competitors."

I pulled money from my pocket. "I realize that your time is valuable."

"No, he said curtly. 'Our records are not for sale either. I'm afraid I must ask you to leave, Mr. March.'"

"It's refreshing to meet an honest man," I told him.

I went out and hailed a cab.

I had it take me back to the hotel. The sedan followed. I went upstairs and put in a call to Martin Raymond in New York.

"Milo," he said. "Got the case all solved?"

"You're an optimistic one," I said. "I need a little help. Know anybody at Interstate Workers Insurance or at Monig Mutual?"

"Interstate," he said, "is a company owned entirely by officers of the Carrier Workers union. Their main office is in St. Louis. Monig is a legitimate company. The head office is here in New York and I know most of their people quite well. What do you want?"

"There's a Martinson Laundry Company here in Washington. Monig carries the insurance on their plant and equipment. I want some information from their records. The manager of the place refused to give it to me this morning so I thought maybe you could bring a little pressure on him through his insurance company."

"It was a little more than a half-hour before Raymond called back.

"Milo, he said, when I answered the phone, 'they'll do it. Ranson at Monig owes me a couple of favors. He checked the records on the company while I was on the phone and discovered that they've collected on several claims. He's calling the manager and suggesting it would be better if he co-operated. Better give it an hour or so in the event he doesn't get through on the first call.'"

"Thanks, Martin."

I went out and got a cab, directing the driver back to the laundry company. The boys in the sedan fell in behind it. When we reached the laundry I went in and soon found the manager. He didn't look too pleased to see me.

"I've been instructed to co-operate with you," he said sour-ly. "I thought you might be," I said. "How long do you keep your records?"

"The policy is not to throw out any customer records until they are at least 15 years old."

"How often do you pick up laundry from the Peraton?"

"Three times a week."

"How long has this been true?"

"I think since the beginning of the contract, Mr. March."

"Can you tell me if you picked up laundry at the Peraton on May 6 seven years ago?"

He looked startled. "I'll have to check the records on that." He picked up the telephone and pushed a button. "Miss Weymouth, would you please bring me the records on the Peraton Hotel for seven years ago? Yes, that is correct." He put the phone down and looked at me.

"Mr. March, if you'd please tell me what this about I'd appreciate it."

"It isn't anything that involves your company," I told him.

Slow Pace on TV for Summer

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television has settled down to a sleepy, summery pace, especially on weekends.

This reviewer was confronted with an hour or so to kill Sunday after NBC's "Meet the Press," when Barry Goldwater's campaign manager fielded tough questions very neatly. The networks offered only "Mr. Ed," "Lassie" and "The Bill Dana Show," and there is nothing more dreary than seeing a comedy for a second time.

Thus I found myself watching a 15-year-old James Cagney gangster movie. At one point, Cagney shot a man and then kicked him down a long flight of stairs, with the camera showing every bounce. At another he jammed a victim in the trunk of an automobile and casually pumped lead into it. The final shoot-out lasted at least 15 minutes.

The most violent scene I have encountered in this season's television output came in Sunday night NBC "Show Of The Week," a meandering tale called "Ambassador at Large."

It was a most uneven piece, extremely talky, with a few wild bursts of action.

The story centered on a fictitious South American country on the verge of revolution. A U.S. State Department troubleshooter sent alsothe the dictatorarives just as the rebel leader appears at embassy to as kopolitical asylum.

The play sought to explain the necessity for dealing with an of ficial of whom our nation disap proved and also tried to point out the reluctance of the State Department men to send his enemy out to certain death.

The play solved their problem in a way that got the dramatist off the hook but was not satisfying to the viewer. They spirited the rebel out of the embassy by a trick, but he was caught and killed later, thus placating the dictator.

The shocking scene was one that showed, in specific detail, the hanging of four rebel partisans. It was not necessary to the story.

Arthur Kennedy and Andrew Duggan played the State Department good guys. Peter Falk as the banana republic firebrand used such a convincing foreign accent that he was hard to understand.

Most unexpected event of the weekend was the act from the "Folies Bergere" which Ed Sullivan chose for his show Sunday night. Instead of a scantily clad chorus of mademoiselles doing a can-can, there were two men and a girl doing tricks on a slack wire. That's hardly what tourists attend the Folies to see.

The thin skins of shelled peanuts may be removed by spreading the nuts in a single layer in a shallow pan and baking them in a moderate oven for twenty minutes or so. Use a kitchen towel to rub the skins off the cooled nuts.

THE ULTIMATE?—Some listen while they read, some listen while they study, some even listen while they sleep (or so it would seem from the amount of batteries used). But, Mike Arms, of San Rafael, Calif., carries transistor radio listening to a new high when he practices his lessons. He does make one concession, though, he listens to only sports programs at the trombone practice session—no music allowed.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—An estimated 16,000 Catholics staged orderly demonstrations in the central Viet Nam cities of Danang and Hue Sunday, charging persecution of Catholics in their area.

Unarmed police and gen darmes patrolled the demonstrations and no violence was reported.

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—Romania will empty most of its political prisons by the end of the year, says Deputy Premier Alexandru Birladeanu.

In an interview with The Associated Press Birladeanu said Sunday Romania had freed 7,674 political prisoners without publicity in the past 3½ years.

He promised a general pardon in August and said that by the end of 1964 "we will have practically no political prisoners."

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The government has taken political rights away from 80 more Brazilians in a final listing of persons suspected of extreme left leanings or close association with the regime of deposed President Joao Goulart.

President Humberto Castello Branco issued the list Sunday a few hours before the purge deadline set last April after the military-civilian group overthrew Goulart.

GENEVA (AP)—A new and smaller U.N. Trade and Development Conference, to be a permanent organ of the United Nations, has been recommended to tackle economic problems of underdeveloped nations.

The present conference of 122 nations, now drawing to a close, has failed to produce a significant achievement in its three months of meetings. Agreement for a smaller conference of up to 55 nations was seen as a face-saving device to cover the conference's failure.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—"I'll rule with all the firmness and savagery that is necessary," said Francois (Papa Doc) Duvalier.

The 57-year-old physician-dictator made the pledge in one of his rare public appearances Sunday after he had his countrymen elect him president for life.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Eighteen children drowned Sunday and five were missing after a truck was caught in a landslide in northeast Turkey and plunged into a river near Rize on the Black Sea coast.
